

The Rosemary Reid Memorial Award

School of Creative Industries (FCAD)
Award Criteria & Application

Background

This award was created to honour the memory of Rosemary Reid, and to support a Creative Industries student who has completed an RTA module: The Music Industry, Storytelling in Media, or Media Business. This award recognizes the light and life Rosemary brought to her RTA cohort by recognizing the student who does the same for their cohort; bringing kindness, consideration, warmth and enthusiasm to the program and to their classmates.

Eligibility

To be eligible for this award, students must:

- Be registered as an Undergraduates, Full-time student at Ryerson University and have clear academic standing;
- Be enrolled in the School of Creative Industries, FCAD;
- Meet a minimum CGPA of 2.67
- Have completed an "RTA module"

Weighted Criteria

Written Statement of 500 words demonstrating how a student brings kindness, consideration, warmth and enthusiasm to the program and to their classmates. Students are invited to nominate themselves through a written statement or nominate one another through a peer statement.

Application Due date

Written Statements must be sent via email to creative.industries@ryerson.ca by Friday November 16th, 2018, 4:00 PM

Award

$2,500.00 will be awarded to the recipient chosen by the Award Committee

Presentation Luncheon

The Award recipient(s) will be by contacted Monday November 26th, 2018

The Awards luncheon will take place Thursday November 29th, 2018

Questions

Please direct all questions to creative.industries@ryerson.ca